Unlike a brand like Fender, whose guitars are made either in America or Mexico, Epiphone Guitars can come from a variety of different factories in a variety of countries.. Some of these Epiphone instruments are in fact identical to the relevant Gibson versions, maybe with the same three, materials and components as the modern equivalent Gibson guitars.. Also the collection magnets are rusty with the same texture as the string T Pieces, which makes me think that the head and body were together for a while.. When the war ended in 1945, Epiphone renewed his fight with Gibson, but Gibson never resumed to build bass and the Epiphone remained strong and shows his bass skills..
